WASHINGTON (July 30, 2010)—The Daughters of Penelope (DOP), a preeminent international women’s organization, elected Christine K. Constantine, Vernon Hills, Ill., Grand President for the 2010-11 administrative year. Elections were held July 16, 2010 at the 88th Annual AHEPA Supreme Convention in Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

“It is a great honor to be elected Grand President,” said Constantine, who is a member of Zoe Chapter No. 311, Glenview, Ill. “I look forward to working with the Grand Lodge and the members to take our existing successful programs in education, philanthropy, and social services to greater levels to the benefit of the community.”

Constantine, a 39-year member of the Daughters of Penelope, has served all major positions at national and regional levels within the organization, including Grand Vice-President (2009-10) and District 13 Governor for two terms (2001-03). Also, she has served as treasurer of the Daughters of Penelope Foundation, Inc., and she participated on committees that focus on budget and finance.

“In my 39-plus years of active membership, I realized that membership growth is essential in order to sustain the viability of our Sisterhood,” she added. “Therefore, we will continue to promote the slogan ‘Take The Lead With Passion,’ which we utilized last year, to achieve our membership development goals.”
