AHEPA JTG students at the Hellenic Parliament

"Our son Mike had the adventure of his life while on the JTG trip. Not only was he able to immerse himself in Hellenic history, but he was able to enjoy modern Greece with new friends. He had the unique experience of witnessing and even participating in the historical OXI referendum events of July. The faculty and staff were amazing. During the turbulent protests, safety was the first concern for all and measures were taken to keep the students protected. Bringing much comfort to us, staff maintained contact with parents giving us updates and answering any questions we had. I felt at ease and confident my son's well-being was being looked after." Parents of Mike Saridakis, Classical Languages student, College of Wooster.

AHEPA JTG students in Ancient Olympia

"Our daughter Markayla had an opportunity of a lifetime in June 2015. She received a scholarship from AHEPA to attend the JTG program and become re-acquainted with her ancestral home. It was one of the most amazing experiences of her life. The students had wonderful accommodations in the Plaka district of Athens and well organized trips that allowed them to fully experience Greek life and culture. Markayla also had opportunities to spend time and connect with our Greek relatives whom she had not seen in over 10 years!. She returned to the states being fluent in Greek." Parents of Markayla Stroubakis, Nutritional Science student, University of California at Berkley.

The Thirteenth Annual Journey to Greece 2019 Summer Program

June 23 – July 20, 2019
Flights should depart from North America on June 22 to arrive in Athens on the morning of June 23

Program Overview:

Building on the solid foundation of the highly successful Journey to Greece (JTG) programs that have been offered since 2006, AHEPA and Webster University are once again offering an unforgettable learning experience for new and returning college age students.

The AHEPA Journey to Greece program has been specially designed to immerse young students in a wonderful learning experience celebrating Greek society and culture. New courses, exciting excursions and special arrangements make the Journey especially attractive to returning students.

"I had a fantastic experience with JTG. I noticed a big improvement in my Greek, much of which I owe to the language class offered by the program. In addition to the classes, the program's excursions were incredible! We got to see many historical sites and governmental buildings. And of course, we enjoyed going to all the beautiful beaches in various islands! I learned so much by the end, and gained a greater appreciation for my culture and heritage. The safe environment, the classes, the excursions, and the friends I made are really the reasons for why I highly recommend this program!" Joan Krickellas, Environmental Studies Student, Vassar College

Housing:

Students live in shared apartments next to the Webster Athens facilities, which is located in the Plaka area- the historic section of Athens. In the immediate vicinity of the University and apartments are cafes, restaurants, banks, post office, central shopping district of Athens, grocery and souvenir stores, hotels, archaeological sites and museums. It is a safe area and safety is the number one priority for Webster University and AHEPA. Webster Athens staff is always available to assist students.

"Living in central Athens gave us the opportunity to explore the amazing city and take in the rich history that was all around us. During the first week we started classes (I took Greek Mythology and Religion and Elementary Modern Greek) and visited Hellenic Parliament and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. It was also during this week that the referendum was announced and living in central Athens allowed us to see first-hand what was going on - as a political science major this was extremely exhilarating. We witnessed history in the making and democracy in action." Tatiana Tsapralis, Political Science Student, University of Calgary.
