Criteria Page:

1. Scholarship Program:

The AHEPA Educational Foundation (AEF) is dedicated to fostering higher education through its scholarship programs, which are available for application from January 2nd through March 31st each year. AEF aims to support students pursuing studies at the college, university, and graduate school levels. The scholarship awards, which may reach up to a maximum of $2,000, are designed to alleviate the financial burdens faced by students and are payable directly to the recipient. It is an excellent opportunity for eligible candidates to receive financial assistance to help further their educational goals. Applicants are encouraged to review the specific criteria and submission requirements to ensure they have the best chance of receiving support from this valuable initiative.

2. Eligibility:

To be eligible for a scholarship from the AHEPA Educational Foundation (AEF), applicants must certify that they meet Criteria A and B, along with either Criteria C or D, in addition to Criteria A. This structured approach ensures that the foundation supports students who not only excel academically but also embody the principles of Hellenism. AEF is dedicated to recognizing and assisting students of Hellenic descent, as well as Phil-Hellenes, who demonstrate a commitment to the ideals promoted by the Greek heritage. It is essential for applicants to maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 to qualify for consideration. This requirement reinforces the foundation's commitment to academic excellence while also aiding students in financial need. Interested candidates should thoroughly review the specific eligibility requirements and prepare their applications accordingly during the open application period from January 2nd to March 31st.
